

Invitation To Volunteer

ORANGE COUNTYTM
FARMERS MUSEUM

A little piece of history

Take a step back in time, before all of today's technology. Take a tour and see how the farmer lived, learn how he built his home and barns and how he grew what everyone needed. It certainly was not an easy life but a very rewarding life.

Thank you for your interest in the Orange County Farmers Museum

Our Mission

The mission of the Orange County Farmers Museum is "To provide and preserve a living tribute to the agricultural community of today and yesterday. One that can tell stories and teach lessons to future generations".

Volunteers Can

- Accept ongoing weekly assignments
- Can participate in Special Events
- Can lead educational programs in the area of their expertise

Why Volunteer?

- You are interested in farming, farm life or history
- You want to meet new people and learn new things
- You want to share your skills and learn new ones
- You want to be part of an organization that values your contributions

There are so many reasons why a person would like to volunteer. Come by and talk to us about yours. We are very flexible and could use your help!
